

Genomics

A course from

Human Genetics, Structure and Biochemistry, and Computational Bioscience
HMGP 7620, STBB 7620 and CPBS 7620

Frequently Asked Questions

(updated January 13, 2014)

Further Info and Updates

See www.EvolutionaryGenomics.com/GenomicsCourse.html

Location, Time, and Dates

Spring Semester, 2014, First class is Tuesday January 21. Last lecture is Tuesday, February 11. This is an intensive 3-week course, M-F 8-10 am, similar to a core section

This year, the workshop is being held as a separate class, Mol Biol 7620 (Hesselberth)

The final exam will be take-home, due Friday February 14.

A full preliminary schedule is posted on the class web site.

Lectures: M-F 8:00-10:00, L28 (Ed 2 South), Room 1308

Computational Workshop: separate class, Mol Biol 7620

Credits and Requirements

Lecture is 2 units

For further enrollment information contact

Jennifer.Spaulding@UCDenver.edu or Elizabeth.Wethington@UCDenver.edu

Can I Attend Some or All Lectures if I Don't Enroll?

Some people want to do this. This is great, as long as space is not limited.

Can I Enroll as a Postdoc or Technician (and What Will it Cost)?

Yes, you can enroll. Check with your department administrator about costs.